

Week 10 Power Rankings

- 1. Thunder (27-3) – Got some pressure to drop these guys this week, not for the 2 bad losses they suffered, but for Paul's green beard. In all seriousness though if John has to miss any time that is troublesome for Thunder. (Last Week 1) (PPG 31.5, PA 12.6)
- 2. Armageddon (26-4) – Actually got Untouchables to forfeit, sure they didn't have Billy, but this team is looking prime heading into the final 2 weeks. Schedule is very easy for these guys to finish the season. (Last Week 2) (PPG 31.2, PA 15.8)
- 3. Unknowns (26-4) – I like what this team is doing of late, I think they should change their name back to ChiHawks for some postseason luck. (Last Week 3) (PPG 26.6, PA 18.3)
- 4. Untouchables (20-10) – I heard from a reliable source earlier that Billy is a game-time decision for this week because of the birth of his son last week. It was also noted that his brother Joe left his wife at the hospital last year to play at the dome. Some people just know what's important. (Last Week 4) (PPG 21.3, PA 19.4)
- 5. Dome (22-8) – Hung 65 on Multiple Scorgasms. Not exactly amazing, but somewhat impressive. I haven't seen that many points put up since I've been doing this. Rumor has it Kyle Stemmons is what gets this offense going, his canklles make it tough for him to play defense though. (Last Week 6) (PPG 26.5, PA 18.4)
- 6. Norsemen (21-9) – Kenootz is bomb. There is some free pub for you. (Last Week 5) (PPG 26.7, PA 17)
- 7. Gunshow (18-12) – Not happy with some calls last week, but saw they brought some of the wives/girlfriends out. What's harder to do getting kids to eat vegetables or convincing your significant other that the Dome isn't as crappy as it used to be. (Last Week 8) (PPG 21.3, PA 15.9)
- 8. Lynch Mob (19-11) – Terrible showing for them against Gunshow. I'll be watching their game against Thunder this week though. (Last Week 7) (PPG 21.3, PA 17.2)
- 9. Pez (16-14) – I'm convinced this is a changed team. Eric's tooth went through his lip and he finished the game and took down a Corona. He is all that is man. (Last Week 11) (PPG 20.6, PA 17.5)

- 10. Outkast (17-13) – Have we figured out what there jersey's are? AFC Pro Bowl? Who didn't get the memo about being Gronkowski? (Last Week 9) (PPG 22.5, PA 23.3)
- 11. Crack Attack (15-15) – Sub par year for these guys, but Cira's cleats are so cool. (Last Week 10) (PPG 19.9, PA 20.6)
- 12. Freaky Fast (15-15) – Don't be alarmed a team did not drop out. This is the team formally known as Blue Zone. (Last Week 12) (PPG 21.6, PA 21.2)
- 13. Lake Flacid (13-17) – Went 3-0 this week and they usually drink Revolution Anti-Hero's before the game, so I'm a fan. (Last Week 13) (PPG 20, PA 21.2)
- 14. Schmutechs (12-18) – I don't even want to utter these words from my mouth and if you ask me I'll say I never wrote it either, Burger and the guys were able to go 3-0 this week, and yes Marcus did play. (Last Week 15) (PPG 20.6, PA 21.8)
- 15. Crush (10-19) – Another couple good wins this week. (Last Week 14) (PPG 15.4, PA 22.5)
- 16. Goodfella's (9-21) – Did anyone buy super bowl squares from Sal's torn off piece of cardboard that he put together in 30 seconds to score just enough cash to pay his ref fees and bar tab for the night? (Last Week 16) (PPG 18.2, PA 24.4)
- 17. Primetime (5-25) – I guarantee these guys record at the bar's after Flag Football are better than the 5 win season they currently have. (Last Week 17) (PPG 12.8, PA 24.8)
- 18. The Lightning (5-25) – I feel like The Lightning are comparable to what we hear about Cutler every year. As soon as he gets weapons he'll be good. As soon as he gets a Coordinator he'll be good. As soon as he gets a few years in a system he'll be good. Just never happens. (Last Week 18) (PPG 13.5, PA 26.1)
- 19. Fumble This (3-27) – There are probably only 2 teams that can't wait till the season is over with. I'll tell you the other one later. (Last Week 19) (PPG 13.5, PA 26.1)
- 20. Multiple Scorgasms (0-30) – Hey guys remember when I was saying I'd tell you about the other team that can't wait for the season to be over with? Well it's these guys if you were wondering. (Last Week 20) (PPG 9.7, PA 33.5)
